Amara gel cushion

Conforms to the contours of the face, providing an exceptional seal and comfort

Amara silicone cushion

Attractive option if you prefer the look and feel of clear silicone

Both the gel and silicone cushion options are smaller and lighter weight than the leading full face mask, and have 60% fewer parts.* And they give you the ability to choose your comfort preference.

Philips Respironics is working in harmony with you and your care team to produce solutions that can lead to healthier lives.
